Tony Hall, Head of VisitCornwall, said, "These awards play a very important role in recognising and rewarding achievement across all aspects of tourism. With the ever increasing expectations of our visitors it is vital that our tourism industry responds to these growing demands if Cornwall is to maintain its position as one of the UK's leading holiday destinations. In this context, these annual awards recognise excellence and highlight success across the entire tourism sector and the winners act as superb benchmarks for the industry."
