

White Wines

Frascati Superiore

A light, dry refreshing wine from the hills around Rome. Uncomplicated and clean, this is a wine that lives well with shellfish or just enjoy it as an aperitif.

Italy

£15

Domaine de Valensac Sauvignon Blanc

Winemaker Edwige Thuille carefully selects her vineyards from the Valensac Estate which lies in hills above the Mediterranean. The cooler sites are selected for white varieties and this, allied with night harvesting, gives the Sauvignon Blanc a fresh, zingy finish.

France

£18

Anakena Special Reserve Viognier

Anakena make a range of pristine varietal wines that display a rare (for Chile) intensity and balance. The Reserve Viognier has fresh, lifted aromas of apricot and lemon with a long finish of ground almond and Ogen melon.

Chile

£18

Pinot Grigio, Bella Modella

A rounded, well made and refreshing Pinot Grigio – a great all-rounder from the Veneto region that may be enjoyed equally well with or without food.

Italy

£18

Domaine de Valensac Chardonnay

The warm Mediterranean climate of the Languedoc accentuates the soft tree fruit flavours in this Chardonnay. White peach and sweet apple notes are enhanced by subtle oak richness with a little lemon acidity at the end. Gorgeous!

France

£18

Fermoy Estate Chardonnay

Very Burgundian in style, the Fermoy Estate Chardonnay is a precise balance of restrained oak, fresh acidity and rich buttery finish with a fantastic 'mouthfeel'. Just Sublime.

Western Australia £27

Isabel Estate Sauvignon Blanc

Stocks of this famous benchmark wine are sold strictly on allocation. Almost impossibly intense pungently aromatic and the very essence of a truly great Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc.

New Zealand £28

Chablis 1er Cru Montmain, Denis Race

Denis Race's Chablis are classically vibrant. Fermented in stainless steel for purity, his vineyard includes 60 year-old vines.

France £28

Sancerre, Domaine de la Tonnellerie

Gerard & Hubert Thirot make classic minerally Sancerre in the village of Bue – the lingering green fruit gives just a hint of New Zealand.

France £28

Cline Sonoma County Viognier

Wonderful example of this very fashionable grape. Rich and elegant with ripe dried apricot flavours.

California £28

Pouilly Fuissé, Vieilles Vignes

The top wine from this famous grower in the Maconnais, full with a deliciously rounded and buttery mouthfeel and perfect balance – typical of wines from this southern end of Burgundy.

France £30

Condrieu, Niero Pinchon, 'Les Ravines'

Remarkable and rare wine, the original home of the Viognier grape.

France £38

Red Wines

Domaine Les Yeuses 'Les Epices' Syrah

Not far from the Mediterranean, Domaine Les Yeuses, in the Languedoc region, produce this wonderfully spicy wine, perfumed with Syrah fruit and an elegant softness and roundness. The finish is long, with a delicious pepper note..

France

£18

Cotes du Rhone, Domaine Come-Loup

From his pristine cellar in the village of Tavel Jacques Lafond produces wines that combine purity of fruit with elegance.

France

£18

Cycles Gladiator Merlot

Just South of Monterey in the Santa Lucia Highlands the Hahn winery produces this stylish, silky smooth Merlot. Blackberry, damson and chocolate with typical Californian generosity.

USA

£22

Cline California Zinfandel

Fred Cline and his family are famous for their red "Rhoneranger" wines and although Zinfandel is not a Rhone variety, it is a Californian legend and they treat it with similar respect. Big and bold, but with real finesse and balance.

USA

£23

Salice Salentino, Masseria Trajone

Rustic, characterful Southern Italian - firm and powerful but with plenty of Mediterranean warmth

Italy

£23

Fleurie, Manoir du Carra

Manoir du Carra is owned by the Sambardier brothers, a dedicated Beaujolais family that specialise in traditionally rich, fruity Gamay, the Fleurie is vividly coloured and bursting with crunchy summer berry fruit flavours.

France

£24

Chateauneuf du Pape, Domaine des Saumades France £35

This elegant and intense wine is unusual in that it is made from 100% Grenache and showcases how good this can be when handled well. Some real spice and punchy fruit with well-rounded tannins give real excitement to the taste buds.

Nuits St Georges Vieilles Vignes, Patrice Rion France £38

This high class Burgundy is beautifully balanced with supple but firm tannins and ample fruit. Rion's vintages have a regime of strict canopy management and reduced yields.

Barolo Cavalieri de Moasca Italy £45

Classic Nebbiolo from this famous region of Piemonte. Grippy, dry and powerful, this rare wine is made by a small band of enthusiasts who hold small vineyards in the village of Moasca.

Gevrey Chambertin 1er Cru, St Jacques France £52

Sylvie Esmonin makes voluptuous, full-throttle Pinot that ages superbly. The St. Jacques wines are, according to Robert Parker, of Grand Cru quality.

Rosé Wine

Provence Rosé, Domaine Pique Roque France £18

The delicate pink colour of this wine is typical Provence, with light floral and herb notes. Dry and light in the mouth, ideal with salads, light fish dishes or simply on its own. Interestingly, joint owner of the vineyard, Anthony Trembath, is a Cornishman.

Sparkling Wine

Prosecco Di Maria

From the region north of Venice comes this highly fashionable, refreshing bubbly. Made exclusively from Prosecco grapes which impart a signature grapey aroma and soft fruitiness. Great to share with friends, or served by the glass from the Bar.

Italy

£22

Portaceli Cava Brut

From the vineyards of Catalonia where local grape varieties are grown specifically for Cava. Dry and bracing with a fine mousse and a dash of citrus on the finish.

Spain

£22

Champagne

Hostomme Blanc de Blanc Grand Cru, NV

A delicate Champagne made with hundred per cent Chardonnay, which has fine citrus tones and biscuity fruit, An ideal aperitif.

France

£38

£20

(Half Bottle)

Marguet Rosé Champagne NV

Delicate, salmon pink bubbly with a fine biscuit mousse and full if slightly restrained fruit. Top quality fruit (Pinot Noir) from Grand Cru vineyards engenders great finesse.

France

£46

Veuve Cliquot Yellow Label, NV

With a beautiful body and a yellow straw colour, this much-loved champagne has a powerful fruity nose, and releases in the mouth complex and delicate flavours.

France

£52